About Me

Hey there ! My name is Arpit Kumar. I am currently studying Bachelor of Computer Applications at Greater Noida institute of professional studies and i am in my 4th semester. I have not interned yet but that does not mean i do not have a good knowledge. I have a strong foundation in programming language like C and C++ and i am familiar with front-end technologies like HTML CSS and Javascript. I have recently started a YouTube channel where i share Bca subject related content and i am doing good on instagram too. I believe my technical knowledge and problem solving abilities make me a strong candidate for the internship
